The Promises We Make^r: We break and keep many promises over our lifetimes. Join us this Sunday as Alison Cole shares her reflections on the redemptive power of promises kept in unexpected ways and how the pain of broken promises can linger long. As we all strive to make our way in an uncertain world how can we find our spiritual grounding?

Upcoming Events

Chalice Circle Facilitator Training May 26, 10:30am

Covenant groups or Chalice circles are a committed small group that meets regularly through a set period of time. Come learn some listening skills from members Ollie Howe and Crystal Francis. Engage in conversation on how to deepen our spirituality through a shared practice, encourage people to share thoughts on life's big questions, connect across age, gender, ethnic, economic and other differences and foster engagement in a safe, nurturing environment. Attendance does not mean that you are committing to facilitating your own chalice group. Zoom link. Email Nasreen Khan at programs@allsoulsindy.org with questions.

Twilight Zone Tuesdays! Noon

Next week, we'll explore the concept of the multiverse as we discuss S4, Ep11, "The Parallel." Watch on your own schedule and tune in for our regular discussion group at noon on Tuesday, May 12th, Catch the episode streaming on Hulu, or for $1.99 on YouTube or Amazon. Twilight Zone Tuesday Zoom Link

Transforming Hearts Discussion Group

Join this group as we learn how we can become more inclusive of our trans members, friends, and visitors! If you would like to participate, you are committing to attending most meetings, which will take place over 6 sessions. Once we have a core enrollment, we will decide as a group the best time to meet. RSVP to programs@allsoulsindy.org. From the course's website: "This course is for everyone from novices on trans identity to those with decades of life experience. It counters mainstream narratives about who trans people are; supports understanding of non-binary identities (such as genderqueer, agender, and two spirit); and employs a deeply intersectional approach. Over six sessions you will deeply explore the intersection of trans identity, spirituality, and faith community."

New to All Souls? Curious about this thing called "Unitarian Universalism"? Anastassia and a space in which you can ask your questions. If you are interested in attending, please contact our Membership Coordinator, Allison Zafra-tos (join@allsoulsindy.org) or note your interest on your Connection Card on Sunday. Zoom link. Patterned after the NPR Moth story telling events, this will be a live UU Storytelling event after the quarantine period has passed. Storytelling is one of the most important traditions humans possess. Stories teach us to love, to forgive others, to be just and to strive for better than we have. In a collective storytelling space generational knowledge is passed down, communal laughter is engendered, and community bonds strengthened. Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN) in the Age of the Coronavirus

This particularly tough time for the homeless in Indianapolis provides All Souls with another opportunity to fulfill the “and service is its law” part of our covenant. Due to the generosity of Indianapolis area churches, including All Souls, and other organizations, Family Promise raised enough funds to house homeless families in apartments rather than in churches. Now teams of churches are outfitting these apartments with household goods. With your generosity, All Souls, along with members/friends of two other churches, are providing household items for one apartment. Please click on this link <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0B45AEA62FA46-apartment> for more information and to donate through SignUp Genius. For additional information text 317-823-7302 or e-mail jlumbert@comcast.net. Thank you for all you do for the homeless!

Search for Interim Minister

After Reverend Anastassia leaves All Souls on June 7, 2020 and before we call our next settled minister, our congregation will be in a transition period of two years during which we will be served by an interim minister. Our Unitarian Universalist Association will assist us in finding our interim minister by providing information on all ministers trained in interim ministry who have completed their two-year term and are ready to serve another congregation.

The Interim Search Committee has every reason to believe that our interim minister will be found shortly after noon on May 20. If you have further questions about the search process you may contact any of the committee members via email: Jane Gosling; Elaine Mancini; Sheri Jordan; Annie Rayhill; John Murphy. For full congregational notice click here.

Church Closings and Access to Sunday Services

Until otherwise communicated, the church facility currently will remain closed and we are encouraging all meetings and programs to be offered online via Zoom. Please contact Shelley Carver, our office manager, with questions. You can join via a computer, tablet or smartphone for visual teleconference (highly recommended!), or simply dial in using your phones and listen in. Visit: <https://zoom.us/j/412806814> or by dialing (301) 715-8592; Meeting ID: 412 806 814. Thank you for being part of our community; and as a community, we will weather this experience together.

All Souls Feedback Procedure

Concerns should be communicated to the senior minister or the president of the Board of Trustees. Feedback and suggestions can also be submitted on the connection cards. A concern usually falls into one of three categories: preference, performance, or policy. The full procedure can be found on our website under Governance. Positive feedback is greatly welcomed too.

Food Donations and Volunteers Needed

The No Questions Asked Food Pantry needs volunteers to help drop off bags of food to those who cannot get to the pantry. The top needs for donations other than food are: diapers, wipes, trash bags and cleaning products. To volunteer contact Satchuel Cole, 317.527.6426 or operationcarekit@gmail.com. Visit their page for more info on where to donate and current needs.
