Offering and Offertory

We Share the Plate with Second Helpings, originally founded in part by Kristen Cordoza Arnold Kienker, the daughter of now deceased All Souls member Dr. Bob Arnold. Second Helpings fights hunger and poverty in Central Indiana through rescuing food that would be wasted, teaching culinary and nutritional skills that transform lives, and delivers more than a million meals each year to the central Indiana community. The effects of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic have made the work of Second Helpings more important than ever. <https://www.secondhelpings.org/>

Behind the Masks

The time we are living in asks us to be masked in so many ways--physically, emotionally, and spiritually. How to do we find ways to take a breath and live authentically and unmasked? Rev. Miller Preaching.

Events

Stock the Pantry with Habitat and Thrivent November 6-7. Meridian St. UMC, 5500 N Meridian St, Indianapolis

Habitat for Humanity is putting the finishing touches on a home for Doris Belton and her two grandsons. She is looking forward to planting a vegetable garden and getting the boys a cat. Read their story here. Help Doris and others like her stock their pantries by donating necessities like condiments, canned goods, or spices. View the full list of items and RSVP for a drop-off slot here. (or email. weekly@allsoulsindy.org)

Masked Meditation Meet-up. Tuesdays, 6:30pm. All Souls Lawn

Member Erik Mroz will lead a group in meditation. We will practice very simple forms of sitting meditation and walking meditation. Both practices are from the Zen tradition but do not require you to “believe” in anything. Beginners are welcome. To stay safe, the All Souls task force has asked that only 5 people be allowed on the grounds at once. If you are interested in attending, please email Erik Mroz. We will meet in the grassy area in front of the church entrance. Please bring a chair, cushion, or yoga mat (also welcome to sit on the ground). Please wear masks.

IUPUI Arts and Humanities Institute Seminar on Environmental Justice. “Indianapolis and Climate Change”. November 5, 5-6:30pm

Join IUPUI in partnership with Kephrow Institute for critical conversations about climate change, pollution, & social justice. Register and find info and readings here.

Go on a Virtual Coffee Date with--CIC's Inter- faith Digital Dialogue.

Meet someone from another faith. Experience a virtual conversation turning into a real learning experience. Let an initial meeting become a meaningful relationship and expand your spiritual horizons. Sign up here

This program pairs interested participants with peers from another faith tradition in order to have one virtual “coffee date” and get to learn about one another’s faith traditions. By signing up, you are indicating your interest in being paired with a peer for conversations. about your religious traditions. Anyone is welcome to participate in this dialogue, but minors require parental permission.

Once you sign up, you will be sent contact information for a dialogue partner from a different faith tradition. It will be up to you and your partner to set up a time to talk for 30-60 minutes. You can speak by Zoom, Google Meet, WhatsApp, phone, etc. Click here for full description of the program and convo prompts. (email weekly@allsoulsindy.org with questions)

All Souls to the Woods

If you are interested in participating in a distanced outdoor hike at Skiles Test park please contact Nasreen at weekly@allsoulsindy.org, to get more info and to receive a consent form about covid protocols. The hike is open to anyone but minors must be accompanied by an adult. We would do a short loop (no more than a mile and a half). Once we know how many people are interested we can decide on a time.

Love is Love; Love in Action

In light of the changing judicial landscape and because legal marriage affects queer families in many ways such as: health insurance, medical rights, and parenthood many queer couples are choosing to get married sooner than expected because the right to marriage has not historically been extended to non cis-het couples, and many fear that right may be revoked.

If you, or anyone you know, are a queer person looking for guidance or an affirming place to be married more quickly than you anticipated please contact minister@allsoulsindy.org.

We are an affirming community that seeks to be true allies. Your whole self is welcome here. No cost for weekday weddings.

Church Closings and Access to Sunday Services

Until otherwise communicated, the church facility currently will remain closed and we are encouraging all meetings and programs to be offered online via Zoom. Please contact Shelley Carver, our office manager, with questions. You can join via a computer, tablet or smartphone for visual teleconference (highly recommended!), or simply dial in using your phones and listen in. Visit: <https://zoom.us/j/412806814> or by dialing (301) 715-8592; Meeting ID: 412 806 814 Thank you for being part of our community; and as a community, we will weather this experience together.

Fall Retreat on Hiatus

As most of you have probably discerned, for safety reasons, we've hit pause on our fall retreat this year. We have already reserved a spot at Lutheran Hills next October, and look forward with joy to a time when we can safely share communal meals and cabins, gather around a campfire, and simply be together again.

In Our Hearts, Thoughts, and Prayers

John Murphy had emergency gallbladder surgery last Tuesday. He had to spend a night in the hospital, but is home and doing well with his recovery. No cards necessary, just wishes for a speedy recovery are appreciated.

Carol Miller had a complete reverse shoulder replacement on October 12. She is home and says that recovery seems to be going well. Carol is a very active member of our Caring Committee and you can usually find her helping in the kitchen. She makes the most delicious coffee cake ever! Carol says that she has wonderful neighbors who have been providing them with all they need. We can send her some moral support with a note or card. If you would like to reach out to Carol, her address is:
